

I am concerned to learn that Sinclair, the owners of a broadcast network are using the public airwaves to air a smear program against John Kerry just prior to the election. If they choose to air such an unbalanced program it should be accompanied by something like Going Upriver so as not to leave the public with a distorted image.

Sincerely,

Jane Zieper